

“IT SPREAD WITHOUT STOP”

NEW INSIGHTS ON PLAGUES AND EPIDEMICS IN THE MEDIEVAL AND EARLY MODERN ERAS

SCUOLA GRANDE DI SAN MARCO A VENEZIA

FEBRUARY 19-21, 2021

This conference will bring together academics and researchers from around the world to present current research on all aspects of epidemics in the Medieval and Early Modern periods (ca. 500-1800 C.E.) including:

- Identification of historical epidemics
- Contemporary and historical medical approaches
- Effects of epidemics on historical populations
- Social and cultural reactions to disease

T
R
A
C
K

Titles and abstracts for 20 minute presentations or posters due by October 15, 2020: avianello@usf.edu

www.h3de.org

UNIVERSITY of
SOUTH FLORIDA